

THE JOSEPH GRIMBERG OUTSTANDING YOUNG ADVOCATE AWARD

NOMINATION PERIOD:

03 JULY TO 31 AUGUST 2023

The Award is named in honour of Mr Joseph Grimberg (1933–2017), a highly-regarded former Judicial Commissioner and Senior Counsel in Singapore. He was viewed as one of Singapore’s finest and most respected legal experts with exceptional leadership in the legal profession.

This Award seeks to honour his memory by awarding an annual prize to a young lawyer (below 10 years PQE) who has shown excellence in his/her work and achievements, and who has also displayed outstanding professional excellence and ethical standards.

ELIGIBILITY AND AWARD CRITERIA

A nominee must

- be engaged in the practice of law for 10 years or fewer with a principal focus on advocacy
- be a well-rounded person actively involved in and committed to his or her community
- be 40 years of age or below at the time of application
- be member in good standing of the Singapore Academy of Law.

WHO CAN NOMINATE?

---

We welcome nominations from law firms in Singapore, the Singapore Legal Service and Individual applicants (self-nominations).

HOW TO NOMINATE?

All nominations must be submitted in the form of the following documents:
