

FAQs

Eligibility

1. What is the SAL Digital Membership Card?

The SAL Digital Membership Card (the “card”) is a digital version of your SAL membership card.

2. What is the SAL Digital Membership Card used for?

The card is used for identification as a member of the Singapore Academy of Law, and for purposes including (and not limited to) the SAL Membership Perks Program.

The card is stored on your mobile device via Apple Wallet or Google Wallet for easy access.

3. Who is eligible to receive the SAL Digital Membership Card?

All paying SAL members are eligible to receive the SAL Digital Membership Card, with an “Active” card status.

SAL members with Inactive memberships will receive an SAL Digital Membership Card with an “Expired” card status”.

4. What does the card status mean?

With reference to the sample cards below, all digital membership cards have a field “Status”.

There are 2 types of status:

- Active: SAL membership is active, and do not have any outstanding membership subscription fees.
- Expired: SAL Membership is Inactive, currently on waiver, and/or has outstanding membership subscription fees.

5. I am not a practitioner; I am working in-house. Am I still eligible for the SAL Digital Membership Card?

All SAL members who have been called to the Bar, including in-house counsels and other nature of employments, are eligible for the card.

6. Is the SAL Digital Membership Card renewable?

The eligibility of the SAL Membership Card will be assessed as at every 30 June for the period of 1 July to 30 June of the next calendar year. If your annual subscription fee is outstanding as at 30 June, the status of the SAL Digital Membership Card will show “Expired”.

Administration

7. How do I receive my SAL Digital Membership Card?
